Its aim

“ 2019 has been a milestone year in the fight for climate justice, blossoming into a movement that tackles over-consumption, systemic oppression, and the impacts of climate disruption that threaten the people and places we love—especially in communities that are most marginalized in our country.

Jane Fonda

We must escalate action for climate justice in 2020 like never before. And with a movement made up of diverse, inspired, brave supporters like you, we can make it happen! Read more ...

Where is it active?

Greenpeace will never stop fighting for a greener, healthier world for our oceans, forests, food, climate, and democracy—no matter what forces stand in our way.

“ I was inspired by the visuals of polar ice melting, a consequence of climate change that is happening in real time. I intended to capture a sense of abstraction, as well as both the environmental fragility and violence.

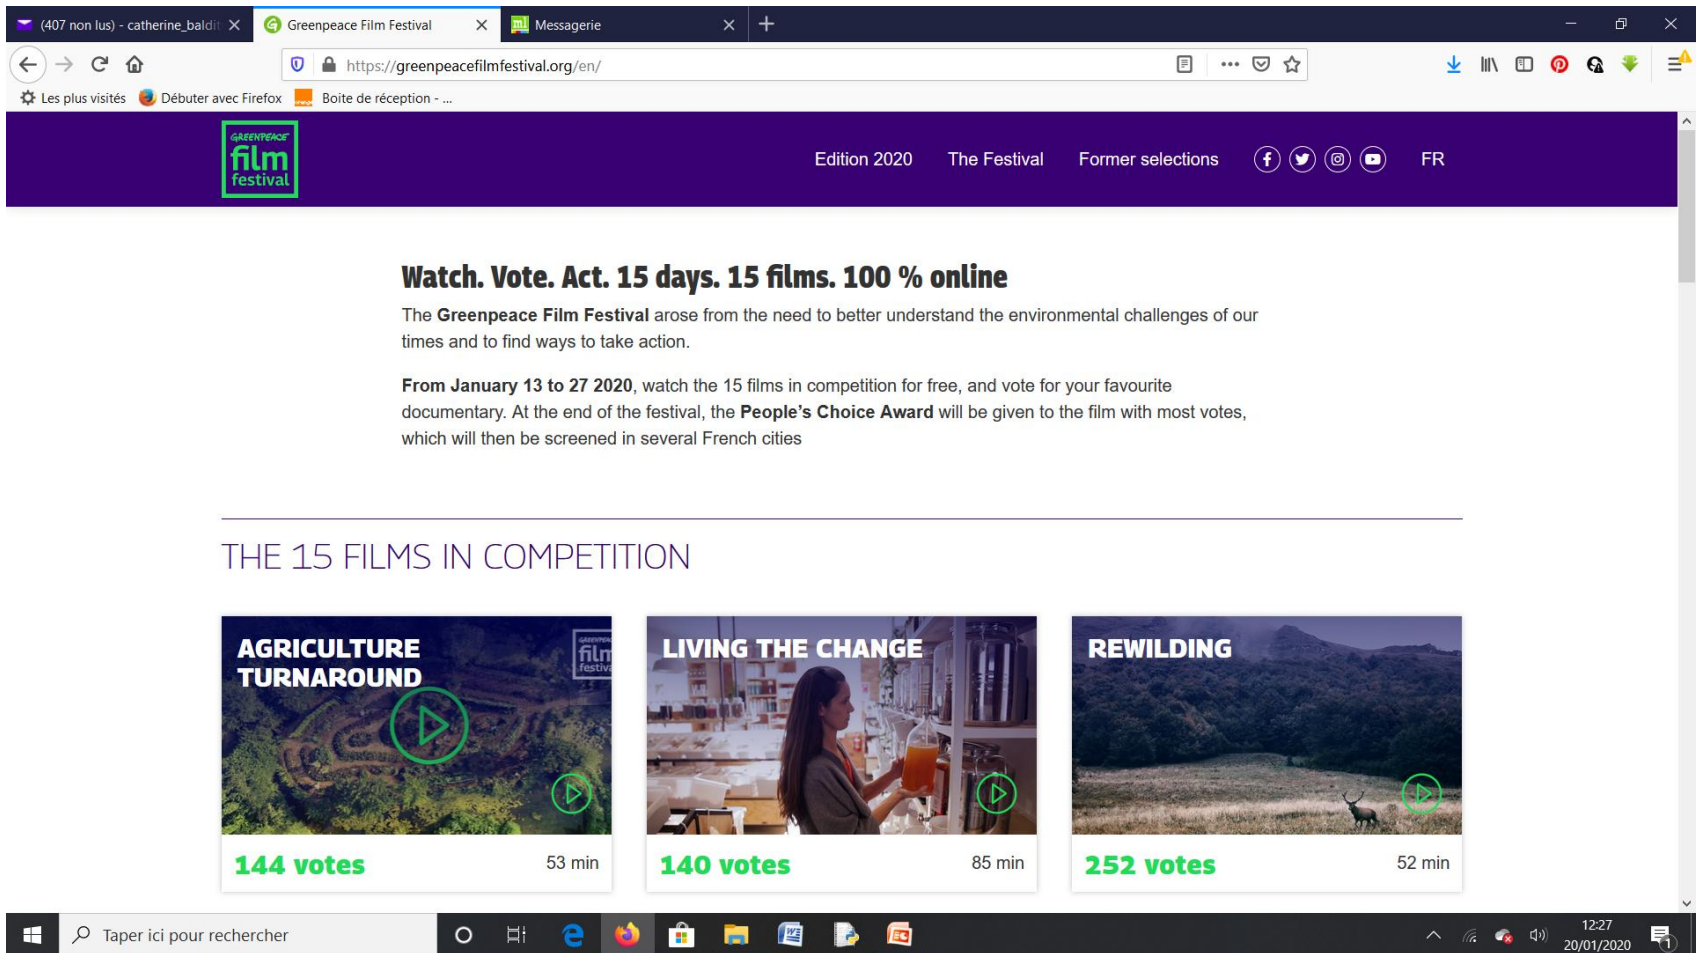

Sarah True

One of the greatest challenges with mobilizing the public with tackling climate change is that it's perceived as a distant concept, not an immediate issue. Read

The website has a dark purple header with the Greenpeace Film Festival logo on the left and navigation links for 'Edition 2020', 'The Festival', 'Former selections', and social media icons on the right. The main content area features a promotional text block followed by a section titled 'THE 15 FILMS IN COMPETITION' which displays three film cards.

Watch. Vote. Act. 15 days. 15 films. 100 % online

The Greenpeace Film Festival arose from the need to better understand the environmental challenges of our times and to find ways to take action.

From January 13 to 27 2020, watch the 15 films in competition for free, and vote for your favourite documentary. At the end of the festival, the People's Choice Award will be given to the film with most votes, which will then be screened in several French cities
